

YONDER BOYS

Berlin based trio Yonder Boys are an Americana band, who while performing on traditional folk instruments, show great depth in variety of influences they bring to the genre. Traditional old-time sound can be mixed with rock, latin, pop and psychedelic influences. The band features the singing duo of Jason Serious (USA -vocals, guitar) and David Stewart Ingleton (AUS- vocals, banjo) who have performed as support for Billy Bragg, The Wood Brothers, Timber Timbre, Other Lives, and Nathaniel Rateliff . Joining them is multiinstrumentalist Tomás Peralta (CHL-vocals, mandolin, lap steel, banjo, bass and more). The Yonder Boys come from different continents and all met and live in Germany. Hence the name of the band: all three have ventured far from their homes to perform and live in Europe. Their self-titled debut EP came out in 2018 on Blue Whale Records, and their first LP is due out in early 2020.
